YONAHIAN '72

The Nineteen Hundred Seventy-Two Yonahian is Dedicated to PRESIDENT AND MRS. JAMES E. WALTER
in appreciation of their faith, dedication and service

James, E. Walter, D.D. L.L.D, has been President of Piedmont College since 1949. Under his administration and leadership the College has achieved full accreditation, most of the modern buildings that house students, classes, administration facilities and worship, as well as dining and recreational activities have been erected and paid for. In addition, the College has accumulated an endowment fund and other special funds to help insure its future, largely due to his energy, foresight and capacity to inspire confidence in Piedmont's ideal of providing quality college education in a Christian atmosphere. He continues to inspire students and faculty to new heights of dedication and service.

Elizabeth Perry Walter, wife of the President of Piedmont College and College Nurse, who fulfills both responsibilities with graciousness, charm and remarkable understanding. Whether called in the middle of the night to look in on a student with sudden illness or appointed to preside at a formal reception, Mr. Walter meets every expectation and goes far beyond the call of duty. Ever a warm and friendly hostess, she welcomes members of the Piedmont campus family and community to their home many times each year. Greatly admired and beloved over the years at Piedmont.

The clock tower and steeple of the Piedmont College Chapel is the gift of Dr. Fred A. Hoerner, of Jackson, Mississippi, in memory of his son, Fred A. Hoerner, Jr. Dr. Hoerner is a member of the Piedmont College Board of Trustees and a lifelong patron of education and youth work.

The tower and steeple are of aluminum weighing 16,000 pounds, constructed in Kentucky, and transported and erected here by our own college construction staff under the direction of Dr. Wilton Duckett, Superintendent of Construction and Maintenance. The Mayflower weather-vane, weighing 100 pounds, is made of gold-leafed copper and measures 87 inches long and 65 inches high.

The saga of the Pilgrim faith in its journey from England to The Netherlands, to New England is aptly symbolized by the Mayflower replica, manufactured in Cape Cod, and by the clock, made in Holland. The Chapel itself, standing literally as the cornerstone of the campus, reflects the simple faith which is the basis of the Piedmont College philosophy of Christian higher education.

The donor, Dr. Hoerner, has built, furnished, or contributed heavily to numerous chapels, churches, and college buildings throughout the country. His life is marked by material success and business acumen but is characterized by civic, educational, and religious involvement. We are grateful for the testimony of his life of dedication and for his example of faithful stewardship.
